

Peter P. Cordelli Jr.

Neshaminy HS '72

Peter was the Pennsylvania First Team All-State Quarterback in 1972. From 1973 to 1977, he played at North Carolina State University under Lou Holtz. While at North Carolina State, he competed in the Orange, Peach, Bluebonnet, and Liberty Bowls

After his playing days ended, Peter followed in his father's footsteps and began a coaching career. He held assistant coaching positions at Notre Dame, Arkansas, Minnesota, Texas Christian University, Memphis, and Central Michigan. He was a head coach at Kent State University. While on the Notre Dame staff, the Fighting Irish won the 1989 National Championship. During his coaching career, Peter coached twelve players who went on to play in the NFL; he also worked in the NFL for the Cleveland Browns and the Dallas Cowboys.

Peter is currently a coaching analyst for the SEC Digital Network.